

ODORS WILL CEASE.

Dumps on Coney Island Meadows to Be Carefully Watched.

If Garbage Is Scattered the Permit Will Be Revoked.

Dr. Purdy's Report on the Nuisance Underestimates It.

Health Commissioner Emery, of Brooklyn, to-day received a report from Dr. Charles Purdy, giving the result of his inspection of the dump on the shores of Coney Island creek, the foul condition of which was noted in Tuesday's "Evening World."

In his report, Dr. Purdy denies that any garbage is being dumped there, but admits there is a foul odor. He will not say positively that the odor is not an annoyance to the residents of Coney Island, because he never happened to be there when the breeze was blowing in that direction.

He says means will be taken to put a stop to the smells, and Health Commissioner Emery says the dump will be carefully watched to see that the law is not violated. Thus the Coney Island residents are assured of speedy relief, and "the Evening World" has won another victory for the people. Dr. Purdy's report is as follows:

July 17, 1894.
E. Taylor Emery, M. D., Commissioner of Health, Dear Sir: Concerning the complaint that improper material has been dumped on the meadow of Coney Island Creek, I have the honor to report as follows:

On July 7, I visited the place, and while the odor was more pronounced than before, on account of the hot weather, it did not cross the creek, and I reported to Dr. Wyckoff that I did not think it could do any harm, as it was not away from any habitation.

When I visited the place yesterday the odor was more than at any previous time, and while it did not extend beyond the immediate vicinity I decided to recommend that the dump be covered with material with sand, if they have an abundance, and are using it to fill in a part of this meadow.

They certainly are not using garbage, and any one who wishes to see the dump should inspect this dump, an dthen at the docks, near Thirty-seventh and Forty-second streets, where they are using garbage there, and in consequence, the odor is disgusting, as reported.

I cannot say that with a land breeze the odor from the dump would reach the meadow, but it is not to be reached on the island, for the reason that the odor has become stronger, I have not been there since a land breeze was blowing.

Concerning the report in "the Evening World," it is very incorrect. I simply stated that up to the time of my last visit I had found no garbage, and if I found it, I would report it. I am not sure, but I would be glad to stop it. Very respectfully,
CHARLES G. PURDY, M. D.

"I will give instructions," said Commissioner Emery, "that the dump should be carefully watched, and if the city ordinances are being violated the offenders will be punished."

Dr. Purdy's report is a thorough investigation of affairs in New Utrecht, and I expect a report from him within a few days.

Shore Inspector Ferguson is supposed to be about to report to the city that the work has been imperfect.

"We will endeavor to get a better understanding with Mr. Ferguson, whether he is going to do it properly, if not, we will take the matter into our own hands."

Chinese Smuggling Trials Postponed Until September.

The Chinese smuggling cases got into a snarl this morning and all because Chinese Inspector Schaff, of the Customs House, appeared as a witness in the United States District-Attorney's case against the Chinese smugglers. Mr. Watt agreed to do so and the first case on the docket, that of Mark Shue, was adjourned to Sept. 27. When the case of Lee Han, accused of accepting a bribe to make a false affidavit, was called on, the court was adjourned to an immediate trial. Mr. Watt looked surprised.

"You said a while ago you wanted the cases continued," said Mott.

"Not this one," answered Schaff.

"That is not true," said Schaff, with emphasis.

"I say it is true," snapped back Mott.

"You don't know one minute what you say the next."

"Well, here, I'll stop all this," interposed Commissioner Shields. "This case will be tried at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and if the court is adjourned, I will discharge the defendant."

As the criminal cases of the United States Circuit Court are not set until Oct. 10, and the Chinamen are all out on bail, there does not seem to be any particular hurry why the examinations should not be adjourned until September.

WON'T PAY FOR HIS FUNERAL.

Suicide Wagner's Widow Says She Is Neither Able Nor Willing.

The body of Philip Wagner, who shot himself in Central Park last evening instead of obeying a summons to the Harlem Police Court yesterday afternoon, where he was wanted on a charge of non-support of his wife and three children, will probably be buried by his brother, Andrew Wagner, a forger and a well-known character in the underworld. Wagner's widow, who had abandoned eight times in the last six years, says she is not able or even willing to give the remains of her husband a burial. Mrs. Wagner, who occupies three rooms on the top floor of 235 East One Hundred and Second street, said her husband had been a woodturner and earned good wages, which he squandered in drink. When she asked for money, she says she received blows.

WHERE IS ANNA SCHMIDT?

Missing Since She Lost Her Situation Last Tuesday.

Carl Schmidt, of 49 East Thirty-first street, called at Police Headquarters this morning to make an inquiry concerning his fourteen-year-old daughter, Anna, who disappeared Tuesday afternoon and has not been seen since. Her father is distracted by her disappearance and has asked the police to search for her.

PUT A STOP TO THE TRIALS.

Man Levy, in addition to the other defendants, also moved for an adjournment for a reasonable time.

He objected very strongly to interruptions by President Martin and Mr. Wellman and stated that he had no proper opportunity to consult with his client. The whole force of the District-Attorney's office, he said, had been thrown into confusion by the adjournment and he compelled his clients to go on within forty-eight hours after being served with the complaints showing indecent haste.

Wellman Insisted Upon Going On.

Mr. Wellman, in reply, said that Capt. Doherty had known of the charges against him for six weeks, and to his knowledge had been preparing his defense for the last eight days.

He insisted upon going on with the trial at once, because he said, "The longer the delay granted, the harder it would be to get the witnesses to attend, and, in fact, he had knowledge that efforts were now being made by persons, presumably in the interest of the defendants, to intimidate them and keep them away."

This brought Lawyer Grant to his feet, and he bitterly denounced Mr. Wellman's statement as an untruth and declared that the Mr. Wellman ought at least to keep within the bounds of a respectable attorney. He asserted that his opponent was making the statement he did with the intention of deceiving the Commissioners, and for several minutes the air in the close little courtroom had a decidedly bluish tinge.

When the lawyers had quieted down President Martin in a very deliberate manner announced that the Board had decided to grant an adjournment in the case of Levy, but in the cases of Capt. Doherty and Officers Hach and Meehan they would proceed at once.

Fromme Sprang the Bomb.

"In that case," said Lawyer Fromme, rising and shaking a formidable-looking type-written document with a blue paper cover, "we will herewith serve upon your Honorable Board a writ of prohibition, issuing from the Superior Court, which, as you will observe, prohibits you from proceeding further with the trial of these defendants until the Court has looked into the matter further."

"What's that?" asked President Martin in astonishment, as he glanced at the paper which Mr. Fromme held out to him, while Mr. Wellman looked on with a more adverse expression.

"It's all there," said Mr. Fromme, "if you will take the trouble to look it over. You are cited to appear before Judge Dugro in the Superior Court at noon to-day and show by what right you propose to try these defendants."

The Commissioners all looked at Mr. Martin and gazed with much perturbation at the paper, which was finally handed to Mr. Wellman. A glance showed that it was all right, and he admitted the fact without more ado.

Capt. Doherty Looked Happy.

A broad smile appeared on the faces of many of those in the audience, and there was a suspicion of a twinkle in Capt. Doherty's eyes, and he smoothed down his big mustache with the palm of his hand to straighten out his features.

The Commissioners, and particularly President Martin, were evidently disconcerted, and when it was finally announced by the latter that an adjournment would be taken until 2 o'clock, while Mr. Wellman got down and oppose the writ, the room was speedily cleared.

The Commissioners retired to their private rooms and declined to be interviewed by the press. The first case, and the same was true of Commissioner Murray.

Murray and Kerwin Puzzled.

They didn't seem to understand the thing at all. The New York Tribune's report of the thing which had just occurred, Commissioners Martin and Kerwin, who were sitting at the head of the table, looked up at the occurrence, and the former especially looked as dark as a thunder cloud.

DR. O'BRIEN'S RIG STOLEN.

Thomas Cronogue Arrested While Trying to Dispose of It.

Thomas Cronogue, twenty years old, of 21 East One Hundred and Ninth street, was held in $1,000 bail for trial in the Tombs Court this morning, charged with stealing a horse and carriage.

Dr. Michael O'Brien, of 181 West One Hundred and Twenty-second street, while attending to a case at 80 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street July 9 left his horse and carriage unattended in front of his house. When he came down stairs it was gone.

The rig was tracked to Coney Island and thence to Brooklyn, where Cronogue was arrested while attempting to dispose of it. Cronogue pleaded not guilty.

FOUR BURNED. TWO WILL DIE.

Bottom of a Converter Blown Out at Homestead Mills.

PITTSBURGH, July 19.—The bottom of a converter at the Homestead steel works of Carnegie & Co., at Homestead, blew out at 10 o'clock yesterday, scattering 3,300 pounds of molten metal in every direction.

Four men, who were in the pit, were terribly burned, two of them fatally. Their names are: Peter J. Doherty, burned all over the body; William Doherty, burned all over the body; William Doherty, burned all over the body; William Doherty, burned all over the body.

JOSEPH VINDICATED.

Justice Andrews Declares There Is No Pretense of Bribery.

He Denies Lawee Epstein's Motion to Recover $629.

He Alleged $500 of It Was Paid to "Fix" a Judge.

Lawyer Abraham Joseph, of 223 Broadway, who was charged two weeks ago by Lawyer George H. Epstein, of 306 Broadway, with having charged a client $500 for "fixing" a City Court Judge, was vindicated to-day by the decision of Supreme Court Justice Andrews. He dismissed Epstein's motion to compel Joseph to pay $529 to Mrs. Goldenson, Epstein's client.

The decision of Justice Andrews also vindicates Chief Justice Ehrlich, of the City Court.

The original suit of Mrs. Goldenson, in which Joseph acted as her attorney, was against the Bowery Savings Bank to recover moneys in deposit, which had been given to her by the depositor, Mrs. Goldenson, who was charged with having paid Joseph $500 to "fix" the case.

Subsequently Mrs. Goldenson employed Lawyer Epstein to recover $529 from Joseph, which she alleged, he was holding back. This came up as a motion before Justice Andrews, and his answer Lawyer Joseph alleged that from the $529 there was to be deducted $50, which Mrs. Goldenson was to have as a retainer, and the balance of $479 was to be paid to her as a fee.

THEIR NEW CLUB-HOUSE OPEN

Professional Woman's League Holds a Reception To-Day.

Joseph Jefferson Arrives from Buzzard's Bay to Join the Festivities.

There is nothing in the Weather Bureau but enough to quell the enthusiasm of the ladies of the Professional Woman's League. This afternoon may be as red-hot as Anarchy, but it is the League's afternoon "at home," and the League ladies will be at home, and the League house will be in cool and refreshing as a well-organized refrigerator.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson arrived from Buzzard's Bay to join the festivities. The house is a great institution. The last tenant was none other than the Young Women's Christian Association, and although a sort of odor of sanctity prevailed the premises were thoroughly renovated and made at minimum expense.

To the astonishment of the "Long Acre" neighbors the ground floor is offered for rent, the upper floors being reserved for the needs of the League. Middle rooms are in commission yesterday. The main rooms for the League are in the top floor, and the main rooms for the League are in the top floor, and the main rooms for the League are in the top floor.

Justice Hudspeeth and Kenney, in the Hudson County Court-house, Jersey City, to-day heard the pleas of Justices of the Peace, Henry Martinez and William Wilson accused, in their official capacity, of extortion and receiving fees illegally.

Justice Martinez pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended in his case. Justice Wilson, through his lawyers pleaded not guilty, claiming that if he had done anything wrong it was through ignorance of the law and that he had not turned every cent of money he had obtained through his misinterpretation of the law to the city treasury.

Decision in his case was reserved. Wintzell S. Weed and Peter Beck, the other Justices accused, have already been punished by fines.

The offense of this quartet was one of the most flagrant ever complained of in New Jersey. In their judicial capacity they took advantage of every ignorant peddler, or confectioner, who was arraigned before them, to levy excessive fines, and then remit the same upon partial payment, which it was alleged, went into their own pockets.

When indicted on such complaints, the Justices claimed that they were entitled by law to receive them.

Death of Two Children Craved an Indiana Farmer.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 19.—Thomas Logason, eighteen years old, was killed recently while loading a hay wagon on the farm of his father near Shawneetown, Ill. His father, who then in Shawneetown, after medicine for his daughter, Rose, fifteen years old, who was sick, the father of the accident was a great shock to her, and during her brother's funeral she fainted away. She died that night from the effects of the shock, and was buried yesterday.

Last night the father, crazed by the two deaths of his children, was found with a pocketknife and cannot recover.

Senator McPherson Didn't Sail.

United States Senator John R. McPherson did not sail for Europe yesterday on the American liner Paris. At the Company's office this morning it was said that the Senator had engaged a passage on the Paris, but telegraphed from Washington last Monday giving up his steamer. He gave no reason for the change.

THE JUSTICE SAYS HE WAS IGNORANT OF THE LAW AS TO FEES.
